Director, Intelligence Community Staff

SUBJECT: Speakers for DCI Off-Site Conference

25X1 1. The next DCI Off-Site Planning Conference will be held [ ] on 23 and 24 January 1986. I recommend a format similar to previous conferences, with two topics presented by outside "guest speakers" (similar to our last 25X1 Conference) and other topics by principal participants or IC Staff members.

2. In addition to discussions of the planning process, the status of the National Intelligence Strategy, and the Congressional prospects for the FY 1987 budget, we propose to explore the theme of "National Intelligence Support to Major Consumers." The attachment lists five candidate topics/speakers relevant to this theme, of which we would propose to invite no more than two to speak at the Conference. I would appreciate your views on which of these would be most appropriate, or any additional candidates that you might want to suggest. [ ]

The Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D.C. 20505

08 JAN 1986

The Honorable Dave Durenberger, Chairman
Senate Select Committee on Intelligence
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Dave:

Beginning on the evening of 23 January, and continuing the next day, I am hosting a conference for all of the Program Managers and other senior individuals within the Intelligence Community. We do this semi-annually as a means of getting the senior managers of the Intelligence Community together to discuss issues and problems of common concern, and to discuss options for their resolution. I have personally found this a most useful management tool, and I believe that it has greatly facilitated the ability of the Intelligence Community to work together toward common goals.

I should be delighted if you could join us for a portion of this conference, preferably the evening session, which begins with dinner and is followed by informal discussion of a major issue or issues facing the Intelligence Community. If it is impossible for you to join us for the evening session, we should welcome your participation any time during the following day. Any views you might wish to offer about the upcoming session of Congress would be most worthwhile for all of those in attendance. I hope that your schedule will permit your participation, as I think that this offers an opportunity for a candid exchange of views in a relaxed and informal setting which will benefit us all. I have also invited Lee Hamilton to join us.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey
